Has there ever been anything that Sarah Jessica Parker refused to wear? She doesn't like to wear things that are too well-coordinated; she likes things to be more askew.

When you're putting together an outfit, do you imagine that it might become a trend? The things that become popular from the show are things that everybody is able to own — like the flower pins, for example. Every woman can attach a flower somewhere — it doesn't make a huge statement, and you don't have to be a certain height or weight to wear it.

How much time do you have to find the clothes for each episode?

We film two episodes at once, and Sarah Jessica wears an average of 9 or 10 outfits per show, so that's 20 outfits every two weeks, plus the rest of the cast. The volume of this job is unbelievable.

Have you discovered any new stores? Yes, we found this designer shop in the East Village called Martin. Sarah Jessica loves it.

How much input does Sarah Jessica have in dressing her character? She is very involved. She is a very savvy, professional and rounded actor and producer. VH
